

Cost of services includes:

Room and Board

Admissions and Assessment

Drug testing

Structured therapeutic environment

Multidisciplinary approach and team of professionals

Behavior modification level system promotes stability, structure, self-control and consistent positive behavior

Individual and group counseling and family support

Structured therapeutic recreation activities

Nutritional counseling, stress reduction and holistic approaches such as yoga

Relapse prevention and social skills training,

Educational services

12-step substance abuse education and groups

Aftercare planning